

State (observation)

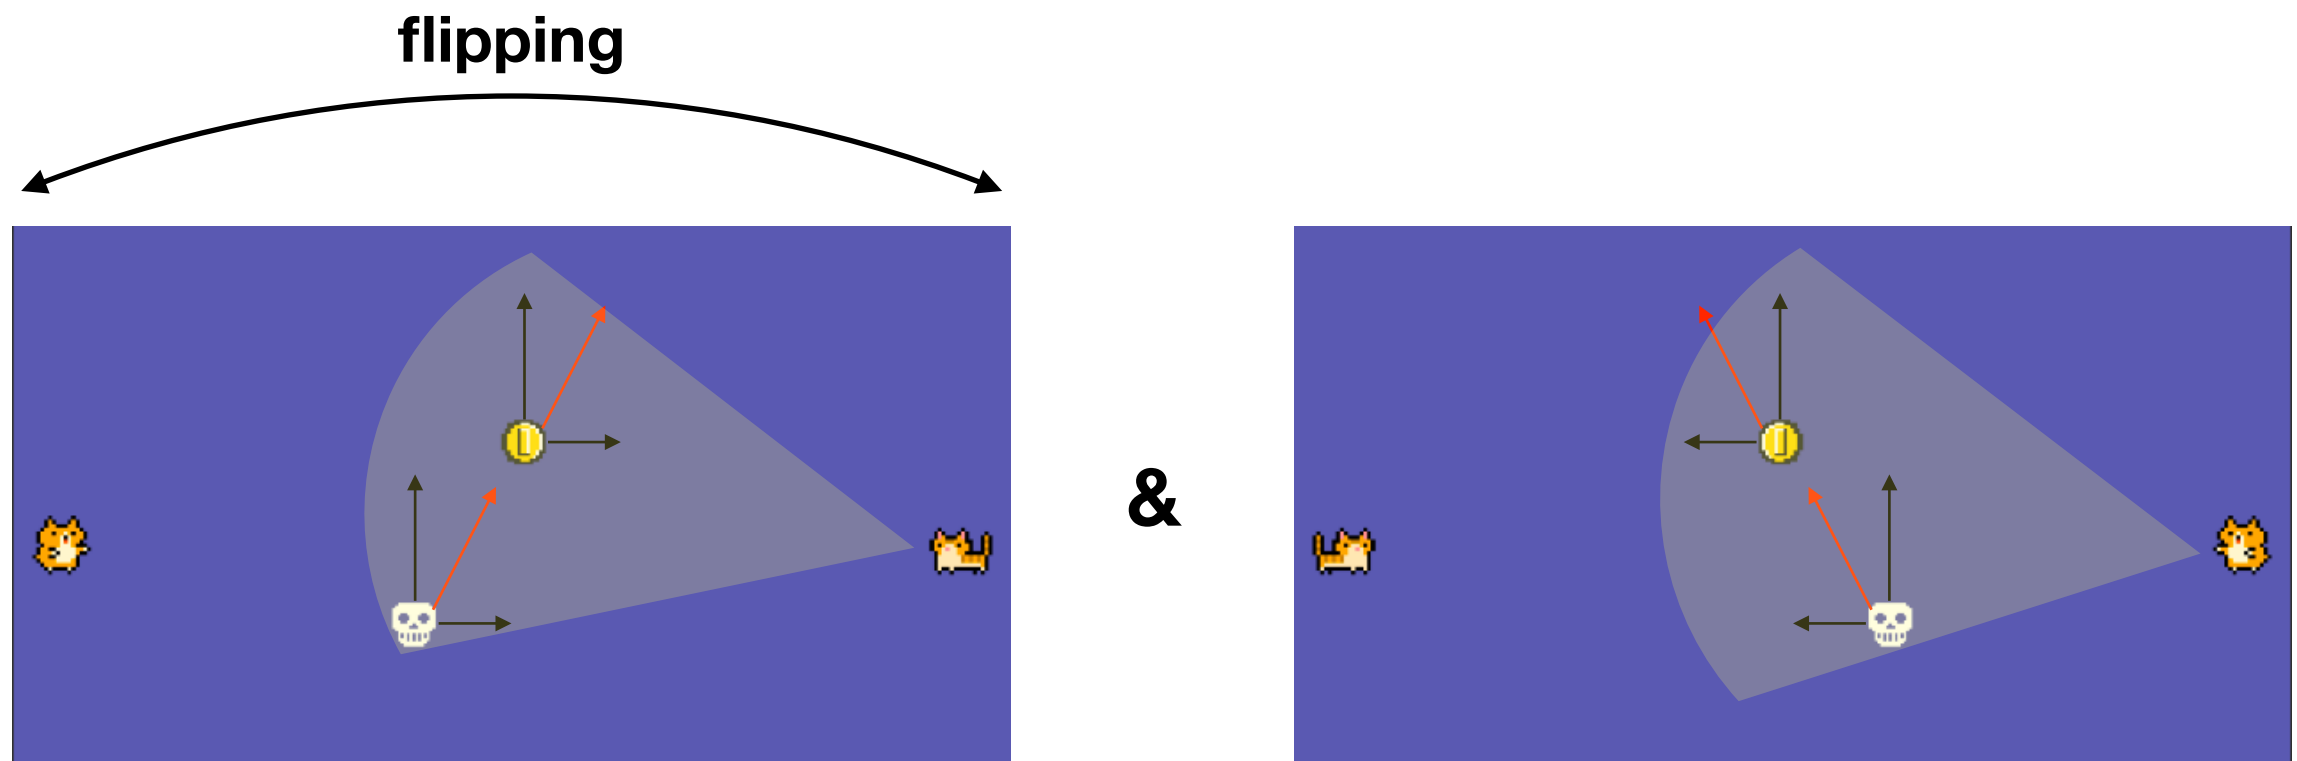

- adversarial environment problem
 - interpretation of observation

do we need two models?

State (observation)

- adversarial environment problem
 - solution

One model enough